

PERFORMERS AT COCKERMOUTH LIVE! 2017

Venue

11A	All Saints Rock Squad:	Big Sound rock choir
11A	Alte Musick:	U3A's Early Music Ensemble
7	Amy Walkingshaw:	One of Cumbria's finest fiddlers, with her equally musical friend Catriona
1,14	Annie Kendall:	performance poet & wire sculptor, plus poetry friends
7,14	Arwen Heaton & Jamie Ryan:	Clog Dancer and fiddler
5	Beachmaster:	from punk rock to folk & shoegaze, an energetic 4-piece
3,7	Belle Gentry-Moore:	originals and covers, self-accompanied on the guitar
8	Brian Melville:	Master of mellow keyboard jazz (also directs the AS Rock Squad)
3	Cal Cawthorn:	re-interpretation of popular songs, self-accompanied on the ukulele
13	Caitlin Swanston:	solo contemporary covers from this talented Workington teenager
11A	Castlegate Singers:	female voice choir, many styles, 40 years young this year!
2	Charlie Wettenhall:	Cockermouth's answer to Seasick Steve – lovesick Chas sings the blues
11A	Cockermouth School choirs & ensembles:	what it says on the tin: amazingly high-quality stuff!
5	Cosmic Cat:	Indie pop-rockers since the early 90's –catchy numbers
4	Crow Dog:	No messing, top quality blues trio
11A	C-Ukes:	Cockermouth's popular ukulele group
2	Dave Camlin:	multi-talented frontman of local legends Tryckster and Sing Owt !
4	Delta Sunrise:	Mississippi delta blues, gospel & modern soul
11	Derwent Youth Choir:	present a Mamma Mia Medley
14	Dotted Crochets:	a vocal and ukulele trio performing classic tunes from the 30's to now
11B	Euphoric Circus:	circus skills workshops from Appleby
3	Eve Westwood:	covers and originals accompanied by exuberant ukulele
11A	Ewanrigg Community Choir:	newcomers to Cockermouth Live! – You are welcome
13	Ewan Scarlett:	alternative country/folk with guitar and harmonica
14	Fain:	Folk duo with Anne-Marie Kerr (vocals) and Ian Wright (violin)
11B	Gary Bridgens:	Uke Can Do It – ukulele workshops, plus storytelling walkabout
12	Gruffalo:	watch out! - there's a Gruffalo about! (thanks to New Bookshop)
13	Guy Birtwistle:	guitar, harmonica, percussion – contemporary takes on popular covers
14	Heartwood Institute:	"Hauntronica": sonic fictions & memories of things that never were
14	Incidental Ensemble:	Light-hearted classical combo
8,13	Jack Moore:	multi-talented teenage instrumentalist and saxophone virtuoso
12	Just Soph: Kipling's Just So Stories	brought to life with live music & puppetry £6/£5(age 3-7)
7,5	Katie Gentry:	"contemporary folk" singer/songwriter
3	Katy-Lou:	witty, intelligent songs full of fun and emotion
2,13	Kev Kendall:	energetic and passionate delivery of original material & familiar beltors
5	Kontiki Suite:	psychedelic Americana with gentle soulful vocals & powerful musicianship
14	Lakeland Clarinets:	just what it says!
1,14	Laura Taylor:	Outspoken, unashamed, feminist poetry from St Helens. Brace yourself!
8	MoJAZZrs:	Jazz trio featuring Mike Ames on keyboards
5	mylittlebrother:	Indie-pop: heart-melting harmonies, intelligent lyrics & catchy melodies
5	Pecker:	long established Carlisle band now featuring Katie Gentry on vocals
2,13	Red Sky:	a musical dreamscape of ethereal voices and luxurious guitar
4	Regal Steel:	Workington based classic rock four-piece band
4	The Reminders:	Trio of guitars combined with stunning vocal harmonies
2	Returning Leopards:	Keith (Fitton) and Matt: 2 voices, 2 guitars, blending effortlessly
9	Richard Bennett:	our resident maestro performing Film and TV themes through the years
9	Ruth and Rhianna:	Festival favourites last year – sweet voices and great young performers.
3,9,14	Sessionistas:	Good Time Acoustic covers with a Twist
11A,14	Sing Owt!:	community choir specialising in Cumbrian and world music
4	Solomon:	Kendal 3-piece heavy rock will blow your socks off – blues, metal & rock
2,9	Sparky & the Wailer:	aka Alex the piano man and Steve on vocals: blues & covers
13	Stephen Bass:	original, thought-provoking & often political self-penned songs
9	Tom Wilkinson:	Cocktail Piano maestro from Whitehaven
9	Will Harris:	keyboard wizard from mylittlebrother (tbc)
2	Yis Aye:	Venue Hosts at the Cock & Bull, creating lively heartfelt folk music